Dear Mr. and Mrs. Weisberg,

Hopefully, by now, you have received the US Money Order directly from our bank. My husband went up and "talked" with them and they agreed it was their mistake and promised to take care of everything. I don't know what makes me madder, the fact that they took the money in the first place or that they wouldn't believe or listen to me. Guess I got a little emotional. I called them the moment I opened your letter and I was pretty upset as it took me a long time to scrape up the money in the first place. I am sorry for any inconvenience this error may have caused you.

I want to thank you so very much for sending the books so promptly and for autographing them. It means a great deal to me. I have been slowly going through them. I have enjoyed what I have read so far and I am sure the rest of them will be the same. There is such a tremendous amount of information that it is hard to decide what will go in my book. My husband is even reading your books and he likes the way you say things. Have you ever thought of getting them published now?

Having recently joined the JFK Forum on CompuServe, I have found a wealth of "dialogue" for my main character's boyfriend who believes in the lone nut theory. There are a lot of those on Compuserve, all supporting Posner. So it is terrific to have your whitewash truth and their "rantings"! I am only joking, I am sure they have reason to believe the way they do, just as I have reason to believe the way I do. Unfortunately, I am not sure what I believe yet. It will come in time, once I have finished all your books, probably.

I feel rather guilty that I have spent so much time researching and I have not touched my novel since October! Over the last few weeks there has had a tremendous amount of JFK programming on television and then trying to keep up with comments on Compuserve, plus family life - my plate is rather full. I had no idea when I began this, just how much had been written. My head is swimming and I keep telling my husband that I need to travel to the Emerald City and get a brain so I can assimilate all of it! I feel very inferior and "dumb" sometimes, especially on Compuserve where they won't come out and say what they mean and they use words I have never even heard before! I need to take Reading Between the Lines 101 in the new year, eh?

It seems that the Christmas season is fast approaching and I trust this letter finds both of you in good health despite the busy time of year. Will you travel over the holidays or stay home with friends and family? Whatever you do or wherever you go, may the warmth of Christmas travel with you. And may all your troubles last as long as your New Year's Resolutions - about ten minutes!

All the best and thank you so much for your help and understanding.

Sincerely,

Bew Preston Merry Christmas!

P.S. Once again, if I can ever do anything for you, please let me know.
